An invitation from Craig Daniel MD, medical director for Mercy Trips Healthcare outreach.

We are a Christian organization that encourages service outreach to the people of Uganda by sponsoring medically related short-term mission trips to underserved areas.

We will be providing Surgical care in a rural hospital setting, screening and preventative clinics in remote village locations, and opportunities to engage in teaching or training activities for local healthcare workers, medical and nursing students, residents and other trainees.

We need team members of all skill levels, Doctors, Advance Practice Providers, Nurses, Techs, Pharmacists, Students, Interested laypersons, anyone who desires to help.

While there is no specific requirement to participate in religious activities, there are opportunities to minister the gospel through word and deed.

Approximate total cost should be less than $4000.00 per person depending on team size, airfare costs etc. Team members can raise funds via donations to our charitable organization.
